

PCC Caravan to the Long Beach VA Hospital
To hand out holiday gifts to our Veteran Heroes on Sunday, December 18, 2008

Meet at Citrus Cafe at Edinger and Redhill at 12 noon for Lunch with a Departure Time of 1:15pm for the Hospital

In the Lobby of the LB VA Hospital, it says,

“The Price of Freedom is Visible Here”

This is the 10th Annual PCC Charity Caravan to the LB VA Hospital. Everyone who has participated in this event in the past has come away from the hospital with a warm glow in their hearts. The Veterans in the hospital during the Christmas holidays are either too sick to go home or do not have a local home to go to!

If you have never been to a VA Hospital, now is your chance.

Please come join us in this great PCC Holiday Tradition.
