Kenny Hale leads a talented group of experienced musicians who re-create with authentic sounds the legendary music of Neil Diamond.

Kenny's accurate vocal impersonation is the closest you will ever hear to Neil Diamond other than Neil himself. The precise replication of voice, emotion, along with the musical prowess of the band distinguishes this tribute to Neil Diamond from all other acts that proclaim to be. Close your eyes and you will think Neil is right there on the stage singing to you. It's that good... So good! ... So good!
