Backed by a live band, Bee Gees Gold brings the unforgettable sound and look of the Bee Gees to life, covering hits from the '60s through the disco-driven '70s. With the legendary falsettos that defined the group, they perform early favorites like "Massachusetts" and "I Started a Joke," along with iconic disco anthems "Stayin' Alive," "You Should Be Dancing," and even hits from Andy Gibb. Eric Sean, as Robin Gibb, has been performing professionally since age 17, sharing stages with stars like Sheena Easton, Michael Grimm, and Dian Diaz worldwide. Pete Sprague channels Maurice Gibb with experience performing across the U.S. and internationally. Together, Bee Gees Gold delivers an authentic, energetic tribute to the Bee Gees' legacy.
