

STROLL THROUGH HISTORIC OLD SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO
WITH HISTORIAN
Donna Friess.

SEPTEMBER 18 AT 10:30 AM.

Enjoy Los Rios Street, the longest continuously lived on street in all of California.

Admire the 1885 Depot, the Blas Aguilar and Miontez
Adobes, feel the tug of history at the Judge Egan House and the Mission Basilica, walk into the wild west past of gangs, brothers, stage coach hold-ups and more. We will amble for about 75-90 minutes and then enjoy lunch in the exciting new River Street Marketplace next to the River Street Ranch. Group limited to 20. Reserve your place with Donna. Text:
949 5330810. Ample metered parking on El Camino
Real. We will meet in front of the Mission San Juan Capistrano Gate House at 10:30 and stroll from there. Donna promises an interesting experience!
