F1, marketed as F1 the Movie, is a 2025 American sports drama film, starring Brad Pitt as a racing driver who returns to Formula One (F1) after a 30-year absence to save his former teammate's underdog team, APXGP, from collapse. The film also stars Damson Idris, Kerry Condon, Tobias Menzies, and Javier Bardem. F1 was written and directed by Joseph Kosinski, co-written by Ehren Kruger, and produced by Jerry Bruckheimer, who previously worked together on Top Gun: Maverick.

The FIA—the governing body of F1—collaborated in the production; racing sequences were adapted from the real 2023 and 2024 World Championships, with real-life F1 teams and drivers appearing throughout, including Lewis Hamilton,[b] who was also a producer.

F1 premiered at Radio City Music Hall in New York City on June 16, 2025, and was released in the United States by Warner Bros. Pictures on June 27.
